

Society of American Archivists, Indiana University Student Chapter

September 19, 2013

5:00pm, LI030

Officers: All present

Members in Attendance: 14

Meeting Minutes

SAA-SC Membership:

Please fill out an application form (available on the group's website and in the ILS lab) and pay dues (a one-time fee of $5) to Steve Heinen or an officer if you would like to be a member.

Wylie House Tour:

Saturday, October 5th at 10:00am. Open to all. Please RSVP system through the Facebook page.

Indiana Historical Society Tour:

Possible visit this semester. Details forthcoming.

T-Shirts:

There was discussion about the possibility of printing t-shirts either for the group in general or specifically for the conference. More discussion and details to follow.

Call for events:

Allison asked everyone to look over events held in previous years and to contact her with any suggestions or ideas for future events.

New Treasurer Elections:

Since current treasurer Steve Heinen graduates in December, there will need a new treasurer beginning January. An email has been sent to the listserv requesting that anyone interested in running submit their information to Allison by Friday, September 27. The new treasurer will preferably be able to be trained sometime during this semester.

Website/Blog Update:

Webmaster Jacob Shelby provided an update on the website (<http://www.indiana.edu/~saarchiv/>) and blog (<http://saaiu.wordpress.com/>). Asked for feedback and suggestions and ways to improve both platforms.

Non-academic Archivists Panel:

Outreach Chair Cara Vukusich announced there will be a panel talk sometime this semester featuring archivists with non-academic jobs, which will provide an opportunity for students to find out what their options are for non-academic positions.

Academic Conference:

Academic Conference Chair Jessica Lopez announced this will be the sixth anniversary of the first conference hosted by SAA-SC. The conference features presentations and papers from professionals and students in fields related to archives, special collections, and rare books. In addition to the presentations, there are also tours of various library facilities across campus and workshops. It is typically a one or two day event (depending on the number of papers) typically held at the end of February and the beginning of March.

Volunteers Needed: to help plan the theme, arrange tours, contact caterers, and help with set-up and tear down of the conference. All interested people should email Jessica Lopez (jealopez@umail.iu.edu).

Public Comment:

None.

Meeting adjourned at 5:20pm.